EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY OF YEAR A

2ND AUGUST, 2020

You Give Them to Eat

The news media remind us almost daily of the hunger for food in many parts of the world. There is also much spiritual hunger, hunger and thirst for values, for something to hold on to and to hope for. Jesus gave the people the food of compassion, of his word of forgiveness, and especially the food of himself, of his body. He invites us, his disciples today, to give ourselves away as the food and drink to others. This week we ask for the courage to do so.

Please contact the Parish through email wembley3@rcdow.org.uk or phone on 020 8904 6031 [press option 2 when prompted], leaving your contact details ASAP. Public Masses can only be celebrated if we have sufficient stewards and cleaners. If not, the Mass will be celebrated without congregation, which can happen at short notice. So please, volunteer your time and help St. Erconwald's stay open.

Helping others to attend: If you can come to Mass on weekdays, please be generous and refrain from coming to Sunday Mass so that those who are busy during the week can attend Mass too, as there is no obligation to attend Mass at present.

Newsletters and other documents: Take a copy of the Newsletter as you leave along with any other documents being distributed. Having touched any piece of paper do not put it back but take it with you. We have a "leave no trace" policy.

Face Coverings: Are currently mandatory on public transport, hospitals and clinics and in shops and supermarkets. People are also strongly encouraged to wear face coverings in enclosed public spaces where there are people they do not normally meet, such as a Church.

Covid-19 still presents many challenges to us all. It can seem at times overwhelming. Despite all the restrictions let us be thankful that we can once again gather together, despite social distancing, as God's people. Let us rejoice and be glad.

Please do feel free to share the information in this newsletter with other members of the parish with whom you have contact. We all hope that these regulations will be temporary. Patience will still be required of all of us. With prayerful best wishes. Keep safe.

We are in this together, Let us help one another

THE GOD WHO SPEAKS – THE YEAR OF THE WORD

Meditate: Through the prophet Isaiah, the Lord calls to all who hunger and thirst to come to him and be satisfied. In the Gospel, Jesus shows us what life is like in the Kingdom of God. While St. Paul reminds us that, nothing can separate us from the Love of God, even if we are troubled or worried.

Act: Today's Scripture readings are not about our comfort. They are about what we are called to do as disciples of Jesus. This week, reach out to someone who is in need, either physically or spiritually.

Prayer: Living God, you walk alongside us and speak to us through the Scriptures. Your Son, Jesus Christ, listens to our hopes and fears and shows us how to live for one another. Send us the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds so that we may be your witnesses throughout the world. Amen.

Your word is our path and your truth is our light. This day and every day.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.
