FIFTEENTH SUNDAY, YEAR C

10TH JULY 2016

LITURGY THIS WEEK

THEME: The Law is in Your Heart

Love is the core and meaning of life; it is also the summit of the commandments. We know this. But the question is: How genuine and deep is our love? The test will be how far we are willing to be inconvenienced by it, to "lose" time for it, to go out of our way for it, and to have a heart for strangers and misfits too. Jesus is with us here: he was moved with compassion at the sight of sinners, the sick and the suffering. Let us ask him, the first Good Samaritan, to make us good neighbours to all who need us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice,

says the Lord.

I know them and they follow me.

Alleluia!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 68 [Please pray together]

This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O
God,
with your help that never fails:
Lord, answer, for your love is kind;
in your compassion, turn towards me.

As for me in my poverty and pain
let your help, O God, lift me up.
I will praise God's name with a song;
I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

The poor when they see it will be glad
and God-seeking hearts will revive;
for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains.

For God will bring help to Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah.
The sons of his servants shall inherit
it;
those who love his name shall dwell
there.
